2022 Paper Computer Game

Introduction: You play as Hmbtiger, and you have just come from the last game Tiger Series Game #1. You remember going through a portal in that game, and this is where you wake up.

Pg#1: You meet a cloudian on your island named Lopsy (from clouded hopes #1) She can help you fly over to the island below the one you are currently on. On the ground of the first island is a rope and a grapple hook which you can use to tie up the enemy you will face on this screen. If you try to go back into the portal, you fail. When Lopsy takes you down to the 2nd island, you will meet the character Fenly from the previous game (he was one of the aliens holding a spear). HE has many different weapons to attack you with, so good luck.

Pg#2: When you get to this island you first see The Sleepy Guy which you can get past by climbing the tree and hopping over him. If you try to kill him or just walk past him he will slap you and you will go flying off the island.

Next there is a button that says Free Robux, if you press it “never gonna give you up” starts playing, and then a heat seeking anvil comes crashing down and before you die a little voice in your head says “ha ha got em!” (you must say save game to rewind time before you press the button causing the trap). Then you will meet a character named Sneezzer, and he will accidentally sneeze and run his spikes into you, so you must use your rope to tie him up, so he can not accidentally harm you. You can then grab the key on top of his head to open THE DOOR!

The door will lead you to the 3rd game in this series which is also on the PCG shop!
