BY:EPIC WORLDS PCG

Introduction: this game takes place after gnome #1, and the same gnome is now in search for the golden hat, because once he has found it, then he will be granted as the GNOME KING, and all gnomes will bow down and listen to him. You put together a research team, but they are only able to fly you to the planet, and have to drop you off, because they can not land due to the spikes.

PG#1: No puzzle here, all you do is get lowered down onto this strange planet that you have heard rumors to have the long lost golden hat.

PG#2: You come up to see The Portal Tree! There is a strange key hole in the trunk which you will need the key for from page #3, but you can go in either of the 2 portals. The portal on the right leads to pg#4 and the portal on the left leads to pg#3.

PG#3: You are on the top of a cliff, and you can barely see the key and a giant squid below you. To knock out the squid you must take a rock, then jump off the cliff and throw the rock as hard as you can down towards the squid. You can then use the rock to break the chain of the key and take it to unlock the strange keyhole in pg#2 which will lead you to pg#5

Pg#4: In this page you are teleported to a cave, and you find a torch on the wall which you can use to see in the dark. The first part of the cave you see a giant spider from the game GNOME MYTHOS by: Xaq. This is the first time you will meet him, and to defeat him you must put out your torch, so this dark sensitive spider can not see you. The next layer of the cave you see another Gnome named Gary Veln. He says that he was captured by the Trolls in this cave, and he was injured here by one of the Trolls to be eaten later. As you talk to him, he slowly dies to all of his wounds, but he has a note in his jacket that says, "Troll exterminator Inc." The final level of this cave you see a Troll!!!! To get past him all you have to do is throw the torch at his eye, and then hop to the portal to get back to pg#2.

Pg#5: You go through the tree, and meet Rorric(created by Xaq). He has since quit the company and created his own company called Rorric inc. He will work for anyone who pays the most, and The trolls paid him a lot to hunt down Gnomes. To get past him try to tell him that you have a lot of money you could give him if he gets out of the way, you can then run past and get the hat. Once you have the hat you are immediately teleported to the next game you play.
