PG. 11 (The military area here seems to be abandoned. It looks like a fight broke out here.) One soldier has a automatic rifle. The elevator can be opened normally, and it says it is the "exit." The writing is written in human blood.

PG. 12.

(You fall into a giant lair with a giant subspecies of Tryptozions. It was a trick, this isn't an exit.) The leader is just an admiral and this is just one single capital ship. There are bigger threats out there. In the corner, the EMA Leader, "Murt" is belted up and held hostage. (Have a conversation with the Admiral) Nothing will work, and he will belt you in with Murt.

THE END....

PG.6

(The Tryptozians who were stuck on the planet have made a society in the capital ship. (There is a hallway, blocked with Tryptozians working away, you must find a way to get out of there.) The eye is a laser that will shoot you or any object that passes through it. There's a vent, a rope with an anchor, and a strange, unknown box on the wall. There are also ~~rocks~~ behind cowboy freddies feet. The eye only has six shots until it runs out of ammo.

PG.7

(You have snuck into a hallway with an entrance to a lounge. There is a guard though.) The room named (Room 37) is locked. The guard is blind and you have to make him convince you to be let in, by him pushing the button.

PG.8

(The lounge has several disoriented Tryptozians, and a hallway to another area. But be careful, if you walk straight to the hallway there is always a chance they will see you.) The sleeping one has a tv, plugged in to the wall, and a bowl, and several chip bags found in NYC.

PG.9 (An elderly tryptozian spots you.) on the wall there is framed images of some of the planets they conquered.

PG.10 (There is again a laser leading to the military area.) There's a dead skeleton of A. E. M. A. <sup>Don't read</sup> (Earth Military association) He has a helmet. The crate contains 2 text papers.

In parentheses PG.1

(THE Battle of NYC is coming to a close, as the G.I.A (Great Tryptozian Army) wins the battle. NYC was a major head quarters base for Earth. The war is believed to be over now, that the leader is probably dead, and the world is in shambles. You (Cowboy Freddy) are on the run, trying to escape the city that was once your home... (next pg)

PG.2

(2 months have past, and Cowboy Freddy has struggled to survive. He sees a crashed pod with odd goo-like blood and a tentacle sticking out. It is a dead Tryptozian. Also on the ground, there is a stick made of metal, which could be used as a weapon.

PG.3

(You want to travel to the beach, but it is blocked by a strong water wall.) There is a fireproof glove, a tree with sticks, and a map.

PG.4

(A crashed Tryptozian capital ship was found. There are creatures guarding it, blocking your way.) One is electrocuted, and the living ones are carrying metal. At the top, there is a hatch. The ground is made of soft sand.

PG.5

(A Tryptozian is carrying a Tryptozian blaster, ready to shoot you.) In front of you, there is a dead Tryptozian, stabbed in the mouth. The elevator in the back needs a keycard for access, but it is malfunctioning a lot. So there is a small chance of it opening in your shot it.
