Inventory Man #2

You Play as a living inventory screen

Movement = You may toss items and wherever they land you teleport to.

Items = You can use one item at a time, but very weakly.

Death = The only way to die is by losing all your items.

Pg #1: Your character has just died, and your inventory screen is all that is left. You must find a Portal at the end of the game to reunite with your character.

 = A Pin on the floor (Sharp)

 = A long rope preventing you from rolling a ball past it

Solution: roll towards the rope, then toss the ball over the rope to get to the rat. Poke the rat in the eye with the needle to get past.

Pg #2

 = A Piece of Paper  = A communication device

Solution: Get the Piece of Paper and fold it into a Airplane/ball. It is light enough for you to throw it over the wall , and get the Communication device. You can then use that to talk to the Tiny fat bug to convince him to move.

Pg #3 =  = very creepy mask  = Pipe is Pumping Acid out  = Block  = Remote control car

Solution = Use the mask to ~~scare~~^{scare} the spider. then collect some acid, and disintegrate the block. Next use the remote control car to go up to the ramp and across the lava pit. Finally use the mercado coins to buy a key to the door.

Pg #4 =  = Green oil

Solution = You see a alien (From Xmas Series of games). He can see you, and can use his blaster to shoot items out of your inventory. Duck behind barrels, and use the remaining items you have to either kill/ or get past him. Then you may go in the Portal. The End.
