Intro: You play as yourself. You were sleeping one night when you heard something in your closet. You went to check it out, but when you came out of your closet your room was gone and you were awake in The Backrooms!

Pg#1: You have entered The PCG Backrooms level 5689. You see black walls all around and a strange poster that is basically just a poster. There is a pile of skulls to the top left of the screen that you can add to your inventory. If you go right then you go to page #2.

Pg#2: On this page you see blood everywhere and a bunch of bloody garden gnomes with razor sharp claws. To the right of the screen is a small hatchet, and below that is a paper clip that once you touch you are no-clipped (Teleported) to page #3. Before you can grab the paper clip the lights go out, and you have to face the bloody garden gnomes in the dark. Once you have killed at least one of them then the lights will go back on.

Pg#3: You see a giant vegetable that will spit poison at you if you don't act fast. You have to slice the big vegetable really fast before it can regrow. You can then go on to Pg#4.

Pg#4: You appear to be walking on a platform suspended far above a dark valley. If you drop down off the platform you die. In front of you is a creepy smiler that will eat you if you go anywhere near it. You can not kill this creature, so the only thing you can do is go under the platform where you will see some monkey bars that you can use to get to Pg#5.

Pg#5: On this page you realize that there is no way out, and you will be stuck here forever. (More backroom games are coming!) All around you are blood painted messages.
